

Outdoor Adventure in the Volcanic Grasslands of Aso - 5 nights 6 days

The Aso area, in Kumamoto prefecture, is home to the largest grasslands in Japan, covering an area of 22,000 hectares. This world-class scenery exists thanks to a combination of volcanic and human activity that spans more than tens of thousands of years. The grasslands of Aso are even mentioned in Japan's oldest written texts and remain, to this day, as an important ecosystem that protects many endangered species.

During this tour, you will experience the dynamic landscape of Aso, symbolized by a sea of grass, spreading out as far as eyes can reach, both by walking and from a bicycle. Furthermore, you will be able to dive into the lives of the people who live in harmony with the volcano. Learn about their culture and feel for yourself how it has developed side-by-side with this unique environment through history.

The main activity will be climbing the northern rim of the caldera. This towering wall has a central role in the history of Aso and climbing it was a major event in the lives of the people of the past. As we reach the top of the rim, we will build grass huts with traditional local techniques. Here we will stay the night and experience this challenging, but also important, tradition that the ancestors of Aso went through every year in order to enable life in this volcanic landscape.

Highlights:

- Breeze through restricted pasture lands on a bicycle
- Climb the northern rim of Aso caldera and experience “kusadomari”-style camping
- Feel the presence of Japan’s largest active volcano up close
- Take part in an authentic farm-to-table together with local farmers
- Come in contact with a culture born through a close relationship with nature

Location:

The Aso area of Kumamoto prefecture is part of Aso-Kuju National Park and Unesco’s Global Geoparks. The area is distinguished by dynamic and beautiful landscapes shaped by the still-active volcano. Symbolic aspects are the vast pasturelands and the inhabited volcanic caldera.

Day-by-day Itinerary

Day 1 – Arrival at Kumamoto airport, enter Aso!

You will arrive at Kumamoto airport and meet your group around 15:00. After a short introduction we will board our transportation to head towards Aso. On the bus you will be briefed about the area and the upcoming days.

We will make a quick stop at Mt. Tawara's lookout post. Here you can get an overview of the Aso area and grab some nice pictures of the scenery before continuing on towards our lodging for the night. Our hotel is a traditional Japanese onsen (hot spring) inn. Before arrival, you will also be briefed about how to properly use an onsen.

The arrival at Sozankyo, our hotel, is estimated around 16:00 o'clock. After checking in, there will be time to visit the onsen and freshen up before dinner. The guide will be available for instructions about bathing in the onsen if necessary. Dinner will be had at the accommodation from 18:00.

Activity: Transportation, Onsen

Day 2 – Mt. Aso hiking & cycling

On our 2nd day the adventure starts for real! We head out early, leaving the hotel at 07:00. Once we arrive at the Aso Volcano Museum we will have breakfast and check the route before we start our hike.

Breakfast

Breakfast will be prepared by the hotel and brought with us. It will consist of a typical Japanese breakfast of rice, pickled vegetables and fish. If there are other preferences, convenience store can be visited on the previous day.

We will start walking at 08:00 and the 10 km trail will take us through varied landscapes such as the dessert-like fields of Suna-senri-ga-hama, the active crater Nakadake, and to the highest peak of Aso, Mt. Takadake (1592 m). We will reach the highest point around 10:30 and then head back down to our lunch spot where we are estimated to arrive around 12:30.

Lunch

Lunch will consist of an Akaushi beef bowl that will be enjoyed outdoors. Akaushi is the name of the local "Wagyu", a brand guaranteeing the highest quality of beef.

Famous wagyu-brands include the internationally popular Kobe-beef. If special food is required, make sure to inform your tour guide beforehand.

After lunch, we will change our traveling method and saddle up on bicycles. From here on we will go downhill through the grass-covered mountains. Together with our local bicycle guide, we will be able to enter normally restricted pasture lands and see the environment of the Akaushi cows up close. The ride will take us all the way back to our hotel where we are estimated to arrive at 16:00 for some relaxing time before dinner.

Activity:

- Hiking. 10 km on paved roads, stone paved roads, mountain trails. Maximum elevation 1592 m (elevation difference 433 m)
- cycling. 18 km, mostly downhill on paved roads, some off-road on grass.

Day 3 – Farm-to-table experience & grassland conservation center

Day 3 of our trip will be a varied day with beautiful scenery, cultural exchange, and learning. We will start early and leave the hotel at 6:30 to head towards Mt. Tango where we will enjoy breakfast outdoors and hopefully a caldera filled with clouds.

Breakfast

The breakfast will consist of a healthy Japanese meal in bento(lunchbox)-style. Rice, fish, pickles, vegetables, egg roll and more, all packed in a beautiful box made from bamboo-leaves.

After breakfast we will have a quick break at the hotel before we head out again at 09:00 and go to visit a small restaurant called Mochitoko. This restaurant is run by a family of farmers and they are proud to present a healthy and homegrown vegetable-based meal. Here we will stick our hands in the soil as we experience the agricultural life. We will prepare lunch together with the owners in this interactive farm-to-table experience.

Lunch

Vegetable-based lunch harvested and prepared by none other than ourselves! The lunch will also include Mochitoko's specialty "mochi", rice dumplings, grilled on a charcoal brazier dipped in sweet soy sauce.

After lunch we will head to the Aso Grassland Conservation Center. Apart from working to preserve the grasslands of Aso, this facility also has an educational purpose and offers plenty of information in both Japanese and English. Here we will get an overview of our last two days while learning about the grasslands of Aso and its history.

Dinner

For dinner, two choices will be provided, a local izakaya-style restaurant where you can enjoy small shared dishes and alcoholic beverages (non-alcoholic alternatives available as well), or dengaku-style food, a traditional form of dinner where different ingredients are grilled with miso paste while sitting around a sunken hearth.

Activity: Interactive Japanese farm-to-table experience

Difficulty: 1

Day 4 – Climbing the northern wall of the caldera and grass hut camping!

We have arrived at one of the tours main activities. Today we will breach the powerful northern wall of the caldera, following in the tracks of Aso's ancestors. At the top, we will build our own grass huts and experience a unique and traditional way of camping.

Breakfast

We will be heading out early and thus ask participants to prepare their own breakfast. There will be an opportunity to visit a convenience store before dinner on the previous day.

We leave the hotel at 07:30 in the morning and start our 13 km walk. The first part will be mainly uphill on regular roads. Partway, we will separate from the regular roads and head into more typical mountain trails. We will arrive at the top going via Daikanbo, Aso's most famous view point, from here we will walk through grasslands until we reach our target.

Lunch

At 12:00 when we arrive at our goal, close to the Hill of Oshitoishi, we will have lunch. Lunch will consist of a lunch box provided by the hotel (Sozankyo). Typical Japanese lunch made with rice, seasonal vegetables, fish (might vary).

From 13:00 we will, together with experienced instructors, build grass huts. These grass huts, called "kusadomari" have been an integrate part of Aso's culture and an important part of peoples lives before cars and roads were developed. The people of the past climbed the caldera wall, built huts and stayed here for a week while harvesting grass for the winter. For us, we will settle for one night of grass hut camping!

Dinner

Dinner will consist of outdoor BBQ beneath an open sky.

Activity:

- Climbing the northern wall of the Aso caldera. 4,5 hours of uphill hiking on varied terrain. Approximately half will be on ordinary roads while the other half will be on mountain trails/grass fields. Distance: 13 km, Elevation: 457 m
- Building grass huts
- Grass hut camping and BBQ

Difficulty: 4

Day 5 – Relaxing and recuperating in an onsen-paradise

The final full day of the tour has arrived. We will start with a relaxing morning and enjoy breakfast in camp-style before we pack our belongings and prepare to leave.

Breakfast

Simple camp-style breakfast. Sandwich and coffee prepared on open-air fire.

Before heading out, we walk to the Hill of Oshitoishi where we climb the hill and enjoy the stunning 360 degree view that displays both Mt. Aso and the Kuju mountain range. After this our transportation vehicle will pick us up and drive us to the atmospheric Kurokawa Onsen where we can wash off and clean up before lunch.

Lunch

There are many restaurants available in Kurokawa Onsen. We recommend Warokuya for typical Japanese lunch sets, Kissho for tofu-based food, or Yamatake for dengaku, a traditional dish grilled with miso paste around a sunken hearth.

The afternoon of this final day will be focused on relaxing and recuperating. Rest in your room, relax in the hot springs, or go on a mini-adventure and explore Kurokawa Onsen. The guide will be available and can take you on a recommended course through the onsen area, or if you're looking for more activity, we can rent bicycles and visit any of the scenic spots in the nearby area.

Dinner

Dinner will be had at the traditional Japanese inn where you will be staying and consist of a Japanese style course menu. After dinner, anyone who still has energy left can go for a last “after-party” at a local Izakaya to have drinks and reminisce about the trip.

Activity:

- Camp breakfast
- Going up the Hill of Oshitoishi
- Exploring the onsen town (optional)
- Scenic spot cycling (optional)

Difficulty:

After having breakfast at the hotel, we will check out from the hotel at 10:00, and the transportation leaves at 10:30, so make sure to be prepared. The estimated time of arrival at the airport is 12:30 (might vary slightly depending on the destination). About us

SMO Minamioguni (SMO) is a company in the Aso area of Kumamoto that operates a small tour business called "Satoyama Journey." Our goal is to bring small groups of visitors on a unique journey into life in the Japanese countryside by introducing satoyama-culture, the Japanese way of living in harmony with the native woodlands and mountains.

Furthermore, we also pride ourselves on being a local company. At SMO, we work with a complete perspective on community development, including everything from operating the farmers' market to supporting local entrepreneurship. We might be a comparatively new contender on the market, but our goals and aspiration know no limits!

Guides

▶ Through-guide Max Wall

Mr. Max is born in Sweden but live and work as a certified interpretation guide in Japan. He is a versatile person who, in addition to guiding, also manage relations with providers, develop new content, write articles, and work with the local community. Apart from having passed the highest level of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test, he is certified as a social worker and in basic first aid. Max's goal is to revitalize the area and preserve local culture through responsible tourism.

▶ WakuWakuOFFICE AsoBeTai

He started AsoBeTai when he retired in 2015 and provides adventure activities including everything from trekking to climbing and bicycling. Furthermore, he also worked in the community as a volunteer for 30 years and works extra as a teacher of "self-rescue".

Breakfast & Dinner

At some points in the itinerary, breakfasts & dinners are not specified. This indicates that we will eat at our accommodation. This is a common way of traveling in Japan, and the meals are often one of the most sought-after experiences.

The meal often comes as a set course menu or buffet, containing seasonal Japanese dishes served beautifully on separate plates. This is a great way to experience Japanese cuisine and offers a complete, healthy and varied meal.

If you have special requirements or wish to explore local restaurants, let us know and we will do our best to cater to your needs!

What is an Izakaya?

Izakaya is a type of Japanese bar/restaurant. Drinking and eating often goes hand in hand at this type of establishment, but of course you can enjoy soft drinks as well. The menu is often varied including everything from raw fish to fried potato. The izakaya-style resembles the Spanish "tapas" where you order a variety of smaller dishes and share. The izakaya is a casual environment and a popular place for after-work drinking in Japan.

What is an onsen?

If you visit Japan, you are guaranteed to come across the word onsen. Onsen means “hot spring” and is an important part of Japanese culture. There are over 27,000 onsen in Japan and these natural hot springs are often known for their atmospheric locations and health benefits. Kumamoto ranks in at number 5 on the list of most onsens in Japan and approximately half of them are located in the Aso area.

Onsen is a great part of Japanese culture and here are a few things to make your first experience into a smooth one.

- Bathing is done naked. Sorry, no swimsuit allowed and your towel can’t touch the water.
- Make sure to wash your body before entering the bath to keep it clean.
- The baths are shared spaces so be respectful and don’t disturb other guests.
- Remember to dry yourself before entering the changing room, no one likes floors!

If you feel hesitant about sharing baths or being seen by others, there are many onsen in Kyushu that can be rented privately at a cheap price!

Relaxing in an onsen is a wonderful way to finish a day of adventures! Enjoy!

What is a ryokan?

Ryokan is a traditional Japanese inn where you can enjoy Japanese cuisine and onsen. They are often run locally and staying at a ryokan is a good way to experience a part of Japanese culture. The rooms mostly follow typical Japanese design with tatami mats, partitions made from rice paper and futon mattresses for sleeping on the floor. Furthermore, you will be provided with a “yukata”, a light version of the famous kimono, that you can wear anywhere inside the ryokan, and sometimes even outside!

We often use ryokan and similar accommodations during our trips to support local business owners. If you know that you might have problems sleeping on a futon or any other concerns, make sure to let us know when you make your booking.

Information and Requirements

Dietary Restrictions

Experiencing the local food is, in and of itself, an adventure and we believe from the bottom of our hearts that it will enrich your overall trip. However, we understand that this isn't possible for all visitors and in all circumstances. With this in mind, we are more than willing to cater for allergies, dietary restriction, or other special requirements. To enable us to do this efficiently, it is important that you inform us at once through the Booking Form. Once we have your information, we will do our best to accommodate your dietary needs. We do hope that you will be understanding and flexible since the rural areas we visit might have certain limitations to what they can provide. For example, if you require halal food, the substitute may be a vegetarian dish instead.

Furthermore, from our experience MSG and gluten-free food can be hard to find, especially in rural areas. If you are allergic to any of these, make sure to let us know and we will give you more detailed information on what kind of food that can be expected.

Emergency Response Plan

Making sure that your trip ends safely is one of our absolute top priorities. Which is why our guide is educated in first-aid and always carry a first-aid kit. We also always have stand-by staff who control distance to closest hospitals and can act quickly in case of emergencies. Furthermore, if weather conditions are judged to be a safety risk, we might adjust the schedule to ensure a safe experience.

Weather Conditions

Aso is located on a high altitude ranging from about 450 – 1600 meter above sea level. This means that the weather and temperature can change greatly during one single day depending on location and circumstances. The average temperature in October/November is often around 23 – 11°C during the day and 14 – 2°C during night. In other words, it is important to have a flexible set of clothes that can be adapted to the circumstances. Overall, the average rainfall is low sitting at around 100 mm and the season is beautiful. You can expect gold shimmering pasturelands, colored autumn trees, and if you're lucky, seas of cloud in the mornings.

Please contact your sales office in the event of the suspension of any travel services by any transportation carrier or other provider or in the event that the Customer unexpectedly needs to cancel travel for personal reasons. If you are unable to communicate with your sales office because it is closed or outside business hours, please contact the providers scheduled to provide you with any remaining services (hotel, transportation, etc.) in order to inform them of your cancellation and/or to process any such cancellation. If you fail to contact the service providers to inform them of your cancellation and/or to process any such cancellation, you will be deemed to have forfeited your rights and will therefore become ineligible to receive any refunds. Thank you for your understanding.
- (5) For segments of travel unaccompanied by a tour conductor or segments of travel or services for which local staff support is not scheduled to be furnished, the Customer should make the necessary arrangements to obtain and secure alternative services in the event of the occurrence of any cause (including but not limited to adverse weather conditions) necessitating a change to any scheduled services.

Article 21 Responsibilities of the Customer

- (1) The Customer shall be responsible for compensating the Company for any losses incurred by the Company as a result of any willful or negligent act or violation of law, public order or decency by the Customer or any failure of the Customer to comply with the provisions of the Company's General Terms and Conditions.
- (2) In executing the Agent-Organized Tour Participation Agreement, the Customer shall strive to make effective use of the information furnished by the Company and to understand the provisions of said Agreement, including but not limited to the Customer's rights and obligations.
- (3) In order to ensure the expeditious receipt of the travel services described in the contract documents, if the Customer becomes aware subsequent to the commencement of the tour that travel services have been provided that differ from those specified in the contract documents, the Customer shall promptly and at the affected point of travel bring said discrepancy to the attention of a tour conductor, meet-and-greet staff, local guide, provider of the relevant travel services or the sales location where the Customer signed up to participate in the tour.

- (2) If the pertinent web information or brochure explicitly indicate that an optional tour is operated by a company other than the Company, the Company shall pay the indemnities and/or solatiums described in Article 20 (Special Compensation) above for losses sustained by the Customer during participation in said optional tour as described in said Paragraph 20 (with the exception that this provision shall not apply if the Customer participates in said optional tour on a day during the agent-organized tour on which “no activity is scheduled” and said absence of scheduled activity is indicated in the pertinent web information, brochure or final documentation.) In addition, the responsibilities of the optional tour operator and the Customer shall be governed entirely by the policies established by said operator and applicable local law.
- (3) If the Company provides information regarding available sports or other activities on any pertinent website, brochure or other relevant literature for ‘reference purposes’, the Company shall explicitly indicate that said information is simply being provided for reference. In such case, while the Special Compensation Rules described in Article 20 above shall apply with respect to any damages incurred by the Customer during participation in any such sports or other activity (with the exception that this provision shall not apply if the Customer participates in said optional tour on a day during the agent- organized tour on which “no activity is scheduled” and said absence of scheduled activity is indicated in the pertinent web information, brochure or final documentation), the Company shall assume no other liability in connection therewith.
